

Guerrilla Productions Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 3, 2005

The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath* now on DVD

Portland's Guerrilla Productions announces the availability of its first feature film, the animated adaptation of H. P. Lovecraft's The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath, on DVD.

The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath, one of H. P. Lovecraft's few novels, follows the adventures of Randolph Carter, a brave Dreamer in the Land of Dream, as he navigates a terrifying landscape of ghouls, zoogs, Shantak birds, nightgaunts, dholes, evil priests, and moonbeasts, all in search of his beloved Sunset City.

"We've really punched it up," says Director Edward Martin III. "We've remastered the soundtrack in Dolby Digital, added more bonus features, pulled out many scenes that were very loosely animated and re-animated them completely from scratch, included some very neat DVD-ROM content, and just overall have made this an even more attractive product than the first release."

The first limited release of 1000 copies sold out in six months.

"That's not going to happen again," adds Martin. "We're committed to keeping this product alive and well for as long as the fans want it."

Guerrilla Productions, fueled almost entirely by caffeine, has completed half a dozen short movies since the initial release of The Dream-Quest of Unknown Kadath and is currently in post-production on Flesh of my Flesh (www.FleshOfMyFlesh.com), a live action horror/thriller with Lovecraftian undertones, and pre-production on a live-action adaptation of The Statement of Randolph Carter.

For more information, please contact

Edward Martin III
Guerrilla Productions
<http://www.Guerrilla-Productions.org/>
Edward@Guerrilla-Productions.org

